DAY 2

Ajaccio - Cacalu - Cala di Conca or Scoglio Lungo

Departure for Cacalu, also known as Anse de Cacao, a small bay north of Cape Muro. With its sumptuous seabed, it's an ideal stopover for swimming among the rocks. Then sail to Cala Di Conca, a small cove far from civilization, surrounded by magnificent wild vegetation, or to Scoglio Lungo, rock resembling the Lavezzi islands, where you can enjoy pleasant moments of relaxation. Dinner and overnight at anchor.

DAY 3

Cala di ziolu

Departure for Roccapina. This walk takes you through a chaos of pink granite above the sea, between Sartène and Bonifacio.

You'll discover its unique beach, guarded by the Lion de Roccapina (a rock resembling a lion), and dive into its turquoise waters, lined with rocks and scrub. In the late afternoon, sail to the Fazziolu Islands (close to Bonifacio, 2h30 sailing time) or Paragnanu, where you'll spend the evening.

Dinner and overnight at anchor.

DAY 4

Fazziolu Islands - Lavezzi Islands

Departure for the Lavezzi Islands, 10 km southeast of Bonifacio. This multitude of granite islets, sometimes surrounded by turquoise-blue coves, is one of the most beautiful sites in the Mediterranean. Accessible only by boat, you'll discover an unforgettable aquatic fauna. The best part of the day is the late afternoon, when the day visitors leave the islets on the shuttles and the archipelago is returned to the yachtsmen: stroll the deserted hiking trails and make your way to the marine cemetery just before sunset. Dinner and overnight at anchor (if the weather doesn't allow you to spend the night in the islands).

Lavezzi, not very sheltered, the night will be spent near Bonifacio)

Lavezzi Beach

Cliffs of Bonifacio

DAY 5

Lavezzi Islands - Bonifacio

In the morning, departure from Lavezzi towards Bonifacio. You'll sail along the incredible white cliffs dominated by the citadel before entering the port. Bonifacio is a veritable open-air museum. From the top of its cliffs, you'll enjoy exceptional views. If you feel like it, you can enjoy its lively nightlife, with small bars, restaurants on the port or in the alleyways, craft stores... Dinner and overnight at anchor or dockside.

DAY 6

Bonifacio - Anse d'Arbitru or plage d'Argent - Cala Lunga or Tizzano

Depending on the time of departure from Bonifacio, the Captain will take you to discover the Anse d'Arbitru (in Corsican, Arbitru is Arbutus), or the Plage d'Argent at Pietrosella (2 h sailing), on the south shore of the Gulf of Ajaccio. Mare E Sole or « Silver Beach », nicknamed for its sand, a veritable dustbowl of light, enjoys an impeccable reputation: translucent water, sandbanks that allow you to walk a long way. Sailing then continues to Cala Lunga (approx. 2 hrs.), a beach of white sand and turquoise water, or to Tizzano, an adorable little village nestled between the rocks. A veritable paradise, Tizzano has nothing to envy the world's most famous tourist sites. Along the coast, you'll discover pretty coves ideal for lazing in the sun. The clarity and color of the water invite you to take a long, refreshing swim. Dinner and overnight at anchor.

Cala Lunga or Tizzano - Cala d'Orzu - Campomoro – Ajaccio

Depart for Cala d'Orzu, (1 hr 30 min. sail) a cove famous for its « chez Francis » beach restaurant... If you wish, you can have lunch there as an optional extra. In the afternoon, you'll stop off at Campomoro (1 hr 30 min. sail), a village with an end-of-the-world feel and unspoiled charm. Visit the Genoese tower and small museum.
