SOUTH CORSICA CRUISE

TOWARDS LAVEZZI, BONIFACIO AND ROCCAPINA

Alone, as a couple, with family or friends,
one cabin or the whole boat.

South Corsica can be fully revealed from the sea, to the peaceful rhythm of sailing. An intimate cruise, far from congested roads and crowded beaches, to explore discreet coves, fine sandy beaches, steep cliffs and wild islets bathed in crystal-clear waters.

An exceptional itinerary combining nature and heritage: majestic Bonifacio, the Lavezzi park classified as a nature reserve, the bay of Roccapina watched over by its stone lion, the tranquil anchorages of Campomoro, the colorful facades of Ajaccio...

Corsica, a mountain set on the Mediterranean, is the destination of choice for those who dream of an escape at sea, without having to unpack their suitcases or change their accommodation, as the waves take them, on a large catamaran.

DAY 4

Fazziolu Islands - Lavezzi Islands - Piana Island or Cavallo Island

Departure for a panoramic tour of the Lavezzi Islands, located in the Strait of Bonifacio between Corsica and Sardinia. This multitude of granite islets, sometimes surrounded by turquoise blue coves, is one of the most beautiful sites in the Mediterranean. Highly preserved, anchoring is prohibited in order to protect the Posidonia seagrass beds. You will enjoy an exceptional view of this archipelago as you sail gently around the islets.

You will then reach the very chic island of Cavallo, Jean Castel's stronghold in the 1970s, or the wild island of Piana, located in the extension of the Pointe de Spérone. With its air of a lagoon at the end of the world, it offers the perfect setting for water sports and long swims, as well as a safe and welcoming place for dinner and a night at anchor.

Falaises de Bonifacio

DAY 5

Piana Island or Cavallo Island - Bonifacio

In the morning, set off on a beautiful sail to Bonifacio. You will sail along the incredible white cliffs dominated by the citadel before entering the port: an intense moment. Bonifacio is a veritable open-air museum. It offers exceptional views from the top of its cliffs. If you feel like it, you can enjoy its lively nightlife, small bars, restaurants on the harbour or in the narrow streets, craft shops...

Dinner and night at anchor or at the quay.

DAY 6

Bonifacio - Anse d'Arbitru or plage d'Argent - Cala Lunga or Tizzano

Depending on the time of departure from Bonifacio, the Captain will take you to discover the Anse d'Arbitru (in Corsican, Arbitru is Arbutus), or the Plage d'Argent at Pietrosella (2 h sailing), on the south shore of the Gulf of Ajaccio. Mare E Sole or « Silver Beach », nicknamed for its sand, a veritable dustbowl of light, enjoys an impeccable reputation: translucent water, sandbanks that allow you to walk a long way. Sailing then continues to Cala Lunga (approx. 2 hrs.), a beach of white sand and turquoise water, or to Tizzano, an adorable little village nestled between the rocks. A veritable paradise, Tizzano has nothing to envy the world's most famous tourist sites. Along the coast, you'll discover pretty coves ideal for lazing in the sun. The clarity and color of the water invite you to take a long, refreshing swim. Dinner and overnight at anchor.

DAY 7

Cala Lunga or Tizzano - Cala d'Orzu - Campomoro – Ajaccio
