CARIBBEAN CRUISE GUADELOUPE, DOMINICA, MARTINIQUE (8 DAYS) ODYSSÉE ANTILLAISE SUR UN AIR DE BIGUINE

Alone, as a couple, with family or friends, one cabin or the whole boat.

Guadeloupe is more than just its main island, magnificent as it may be. It boasts a true treasure: its surrounding small islands, genuine tropical jewels. The archipelago of Les Saintes and Marie-Galante offer dreamy, timeless stopovers, accessible only by boat. You'll be charmed by their beautiful beaches, quaint villages, island vibes, and especially by the famous bay of Les Saintes, ranked among the most beautiful in the world.

Halfway between Guadeloupe and Martinique lies Dominica. Still untouched by mass tourism, it is arguably the wildest and most pristine island in the region. Spectacular rainforests, vibrant marine life, waterfalls, hot springs, volcanoes... Its lush nature is among the most impressive in the Caribbean.

As for Martinique, known as the Island of Flowers or "Madinina", it welcomes you with a captivating coastline stretching from Sainte-Anne to Les Anses d'Arlet, blending golden beaches, lively coastal villages, and peaceful anchorages. A final stop infused with rum and biguine to beautifully conclude this Antillean odyssey. Ready to sail from Guadeloupe to Martinique?

Pointe-à-Pitre – Gosier, Guadeloupe

Boarding at the Bas-du-Fort marina from 6 PM. You'll meet the crew and fellow cruisers over a welcome drink, while the captain introduces the cruise program and safety instructions.

Shortly after dinner, the catamaran sets off for a short sail to Gosier Islet. Anchoring takes place near the islet, close to the coast. Depending on arrival time, you may go ashore to enjoy the lively waterfront: beach bars, Creole restaurants, and local market. Overnight anchorage at Gosier.

DAY 2

Gosier – Marie-Galante, Guadeloupe

After breakfast, departure for Marie-Galante, nicknamed "la grande galette" (the big pancake) for its flat terrain, and "the island of a hundred windmills." A smooth sail leads you to this authentic island where time seems to have stood still.

Marie-Galante captivates with its rural landscapes, iconic rum distilleries, like the Père Labat distillery, and especially its vast coconut-lined beaches. Depending on weather conditions, the catamaran will anchor in one of its turquoise lagoons.

In the afternoon, enjoy the beach, explore the island, or visit a distillery. Lounging, snorkeling, swimming, the pure essence of island life.

Highlights include Fort Napoléon, perched above the island, offering a panoramic view of the bay and housing a small museum. For beaches, you can choose between the wilder Anse Crawen, the coconut-lined Pompierre beach, or the Anse du Figuier. You can also rent a bike to explore the island freely.

While strolling through town, don't miss tasting the local sweet treat Tourment d'amour (a coconut tart) and spotting the traditional Saintoise fishing boats, still locally built today.

This calm waterway, once used by the Kalinagos to reach the sea, winds through mangroves and tropical forest. Aboard traditional rowboats guided by local boatmen, you'll discover a serene, secret world full of ecological wonders. Some spots were even featured in Pirates of the Caribbean.

Return to the catamaran at the end of the day. Dinner and overnight at anchor in Portsmouth.
